Project 1

SAMSUNG PROJECT

Client	Samsung Thailand
Project	The Frame TV x Bad Meaw Collaboration
Role	Graphic Creative Director
WJD*	Creative Direction, Visual System

*What Jamie did

Challenge

Position The Frame TV beyond a traditional home appliance and establish it as a lifestyle-driven art object within the Thai market.

SAMSUNG

The Frame × BAD MEAW

Insight

Younger Thai consumers perceive art as an emotional and expressive medium rather than a luxury investment, creating an opportunity to reposition The Frame as an accessible art experience.

Concept

Transform The Frame TV into a “displayable art piece” by integrating local artistic identity through a collaboration with Thai artist Bad Meaw.

Execution

Led the overall visual direction and brand storytelling for the campaign.

Directed collaboration with local artist, ensuring alignment with Samsung brand identity.

★ Developed key visual systems across retail, digital, and campaign touchpoints.

Oversaw design production and ensured consistency across all outputs.

Location: Samsung Store at Central Bangkok, Thailand

Impact

Strengthened The Frame's positioning as a lifestyle and design-led product.

Enhanced local brand relevance through cultural collaboration.

Project 2

PACKAGING PROJECT

Client ALDI Australia

Project Private Label Packaging Design

Role Art Director / Senior Designer

WJD* Brand Strategy, Visual System

*What Jamie did

Challenge

Develop packaging that stands out in a highly competitive retail environment while maintaining cost efficiency and brand consistency.

Insight

Consumers make purchase decisions within seonds in-store, making clarity and visual impact critical to conversion.

Concept

Create a bold and simplified visual system that enhances shelf visibility while communicating product value instantly.
